REFUGEE NEGOTIATIONS FROM A GAME-THEORETIC PERSPECTIVE (HARDBACK)

Republic of Letters, United States, 2013. Hardback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Refugees are among the poorest people in the world. To date, this group has received relatively little attention in some of the social sciences, especially economics. This book begins to fill the gap by using powerful tools from game theory to better understand the state-level strategic interaction in refugee crises during negotiations for permanent solutions. The three classic solutions to...
